

Next Steps in Advocating for Indigenous Languages in Education

Public Forum with

Dr Kimmo Kosonen

Multilingual Education Consultant

SIL International & Payap University, Thailand

Dr Kosonen holds a PhD in Education from University of Joensuu, Finland, with a specialisation on basic education in low-income countries. He has conducted research in Southeast and South Asia, taught in universities in Thailand and Finland, and frequently carries out consultancies for agencies such as SEAMEO, UNESCO and UNICEF on language-in-education issues and advocacy for multilingual education.

TUESDAY 27 OCTOBER

3:30–5pm

Charles Darwin University

Education Building Lecture Theatre

(Blue 5.1.01)

Sponsored by

School of Education, Charles Darwin University

Australian Society for Indigenous Languages (AuSIL)

Friends of Bilingual Learning

Assoc. of Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages, NT (ATESOL)

For more information contact 8931 3133