

LANGUAGE REVITALIZATION IN THE 21ST CENTURY: GOING GLOBAL, STAYING LOCAL

31 May – 1 June 2012

CUNY Graduate Center, New York City

CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT Call for Posters

The CUNY Graduate Center and the International Centre for Language Revitalization of the Auckland University of Technology will hold a two-day symposium on language revitalization in New York City May 31st – June 1st 2012. The first day will include two keynote addresses and a host of invited speakers, while the second day will include a poster session and film festival. A central goal of the symposium is to share successful revitalization strategies. Oral presentations will be organized around the following themes:

- Learning that works
- Development of tools, resources, and materials
- Collaborative initiatives between communities and academics
- Increasing awareness of threatened languages and revitalization movements

Keynote Speakers: Dr. Timoti Kāretu, Māori
Jesse Little Doe Baird, Wôpanâak

Abstracts on language revitalization are welcomed for poster presentation at the symposium. Abstracts are limited to one single-spaced page, including data and examples. All text should fit within an A4 page, 12-point font with 2.5cm (approx. 1-inch) margin all around. Abstract submission is by e-mail attachment only. Save your anonymous one-page abstract as a PDF file and name it with your last name. Send the abstract as a PDF attachment to the following address: langrevit21st@gmail.com.

In your e-mail, please make sure to include the following information:
